

EC Boston Test Prep Offer

Get $100 towards your exam!

Mention this offer when you register for any 6-week course in GMAT or GRE and we will pay $100 towards your official exam registration fee.

Registration must be for courses that begin between July 20th, 2009 and September 29th, 2009.

- All new students registered in a 6-week evening course beginning between July 20th and September 29, 2009; offer not valid for students repeating the course during that time period, or continuing full-time program students.
- Offer cannot be combined with any other discounts or offers.
- Offer must be mentioned at time of registration and full payment must be made at time of registration to qualify for the above offer. Registration must be completed prior to course start date. This offer does not apply to students who have completed a course registration prior to July 20th, 2009.
- Students must show proof of official test registration and payment in full to qualify for the offer.
- Students must submit official test scores in order to qualify
- Official test must be taken within 4 months of original course end date (not repeat course).
- Students must show proof of official test registration and payment in full within 5 months of original course end date to qualify for this offer.