

MASSART

MASSACHUSETTS COLLEGE OF ART AND DESIGN

Why Massachusetts College of Art and Design?

- Massachusetts College of Art and Design is one of the United States' leading colleges of art and design
- MassArt offers a comprehensive, professional arts education, grounded in a strong general education in the liberal arts
- Houses nearly one million square feet of classrooms, galleries, studios, and workshop space, including a foundry, glass shop, and computer art center
- MassArt awards the bachelor of fine arts degree with concentrations in twenty-two areas of fine arts, design, art education and art history
- The college enrolls 1,600 undergraduate and 150 graduate students
- Average class size is 13
- International students come from thirty-four countries
- MassArt belongs to the Colleges of the Fenway and ProArts consortia, which provide cross-registration opportunities and jointly sponsored student activities with ten other Boston Colleges

Programmes:

- Bachelor of Fine Arts (22 concentrations)
- Master of Fine Arts
- Master of Science in Art Education
- Master of Arts in Teaching
- Master of Architecture

Majors:

Animation, Art Education, Art History, Architectural Design, Ceramics, Community Education, Fashion Design, Fibers, Film/Video, Glass, Graphic Design, Illustration, Industrial Design, Interior Architectural Design, Jewelry and Metalsmithing, Museum Education, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture, Studio Education, Studio for Interrelated Media.

Tuition and Fees:

Tuition and Fees
Housing

Per Ac. Year

$24,400
$11,300

Application Information:

Conditional Acceptance to Massachusetts College of Art and Design, form 1-20 issued by EC Boston

Our agreement with Massachusetts College of Art and Design:

EC Boston students can transfer to Massachusetts College of Art and Design without a TOEFL score after successful completion of the highest level, 30 lessons.